

~~RESTRICTED~~
CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY
-2-

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

building, glass, porcelain, and paper industries, both on Russian soil and abroad. The basic capital is 60,000,000 rubles. Provision is made for three directors. The signatures of any two of the directors are legally binding. The following have been assigned as directors: Michail Aristarkhovich Kudrov, general director; Eduard Ivanovich Tavirzde, deputy general director; Grigori Azarovich Andreyev, director, all living in Berlin. Not mentioned in the original registration is the following item: the basic capital is divided into 6,000 registered shares, each in the present nominal amount of 10,000 rubles. The founders of the corporation, who own all the shares, are, first, the Main Administration of Soviet Property Abroad in the Ministry for Foreign Trade of the USSR, Moscow; and, second, the Union of Vsesoyuzneye Obyedineniye Rasnoexport, Moscow.

4. The State Corporation for Machine Construction PODYIMNIK, subsidiary in Halle, main office Moscow. The charter of incorporation was registered on or between 25 and 31 January 1947. The enterprise is engaged in production and sale of lifting and construction installations and other industrial machines, both on Russian soil and abroad. The basic capital: 100,000,000 rubles. Provision is made for three directors. The signatures of any two directors are legally binding. The following have been assigned as directors: Vladimir Aksentyevich Bereznyuk, general director, living in Leipzig; Boris Ivanovich Zaitsev, deputy general director, living in Berlin; Konstantin Petrovich Korshunov, director, living in Berlin. Not mentioned in the original registration is the following item: the basic capital is divided into 10,000 registered shares, each in the present nominal amount of 10,000 rubles. The founders of the corporation, who own all the shares, are, first, the Main Administration of Soviet Property Abroad of the Ministry for Foreign Trade of the USSR, Moscow; and, second, the Union of the Vsesoyuzneye Obyedineniye TECHNOPROMIMPORT, Moscow.
5. The State Corporation for the Colored-Metal Industry MED, subsidiary in Halle, main office in Moscow. The charter of incorporation was registered on or between 10 and 31 January 1947. The objective of the enterprise is production and sale of copper, rolled copper alloys, hard alloys (Hartlegierungen), and tungsten concentrates, and the production of other goods of the colored metal industry, both on Russian soil and abroad. The basic capital is 80,000,000 rubles. Provision has been made for three directors. The signatures of any two of the directors are legally binding. The following have been assigned as directors: Nikolai Vassilyevich Lirov, general director; Nikolai Andreyevich Konovalov, deputy general director; Ivan Pavlovich Dotsenko, director, all living in Berlin. Not mentioned in the original registration is the following item: the basic capital is divided into 8,000 registered shares, each in the present nominal amount of 10,000 rubles. The founders of the corporation, who own all the shares, are, first, the Main Administration of Soviet Property Abroad of the Ministry for Foreign Trade of the USSR, Moscow; and, second, the Union of Vsesoyuzneye Obyedineniye Promsiryeyimport, Moscow.
6. The State Corporation for Transport Machinery Construction TRANSMASH: subsidiary in Halle, main office in Moscow. The corporation was registered on or between 29 and 31 January 1947. The objective of the enterprise is production and sale of railway cars and spare parts, both on Russian soil and abroad. The basic capital is 75,000,000 rubles. Provision is made for three directors. The following have been assigned as directors: Ivan Alexeyevich Poroykov, general director; Ivan Matveyevich Kuzmin, deputy general director; Pyotr Petrovich Nikitin, director, all living in Berlin. Not mentioned in the original registration is the following item: the basic capital is divided into 7,500 registered shares, each in the present nominal amount of 10,000 rubles. The founders of the corporation, who own all the registered shares, are, first, the Main Administration of Soviet Property Abroad of the Ministry for Foreign Trade of the USSR, Moscow; and, second, the Union of Vsesoyuzneye Obyedineniye Mashinotransport, Moscow.

~~RESTRICTED~~

~~RESTRICTED~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

REFERENCE CENTER LIBRARY

-3-

7. The State Corporation for the Electro-Technical Industry KAUSTIK, subsidiary in Halle, main office in Moscow. The charter of incorporation was registered on or between 17 and 21 January 1947. The objective of the enterprise is production and sale of alkalies, acids, synthetic materials, various metal alloys and articles made of metal alloys, both on Russian soil and abroad. The basic capital is 210,000,000 rubles. The signatures of any two of the directors are legally binding. The following have been assigned as directors: Vladimir Vassilyevich Belyaev, general director; Lazari Artemovich Akmasarov, deputy director; Tikhon Kuprianovich Povorkov, director, all living in Berlin. Not mentioned in the original registration is the following item: the basic capital is divided into 21,000 registered shares, each in the present nominal amount of 10,000 rubles. The founders of the corporation, who own all shares, are, first, the Main Administration of Soviet Property Abroad of the Ministry for Foreign Trade of the USSR, Moscow; and, second, the Union of Vsesoyuzneye Obyedineniye Raznoimport, Moscow.
8. The State Corporation for the Film Industry FOTOFILMKA, subsidiary in Halle, main office Moscow. The charter of incorporation was registered on or between 10 and 31 January 1947. The objective of the enterprise is production and sale of moving picture film, of photographic chemicals, of cellulose, processing products and various products of the photographic industry, both on Russian soil and abroad. The basic capital is 200,000,000 rubles. Provision has been made for two directors. The signatures of both directors are necessary on a legally binding document. The following have been assigned as directors: Sergei Nikolayevich Belyaev, general director; Lev Vacheslavovich Rogoshtin, director, both living in Berlin. Not mentioned in the original registration is the following item: the basic capital is divided into 20,000 registered shares, each in the present nominal amount of 10,000 rubles. The founders of the corporation, who own the shares, are, first, the Main Administration of Soviet Property Abroad of the Ministry for Foreign Trade of the USSR, Moscow; and, second, the Union of Vsesoyuzneye Obyedineniye Raznoimport, Moscow.
9. The State Corporation for the Rubber Industry KAUSCHUK, subsidiary in Halle, main office in Moscow. The charter of incorporation was registered on or between 24 and 31 January. The objective of the enterprise is production and sale of synthetic rubber, caustic soda, lubricating oils, and other chemicals, both on Russian soil and abroad. The basic capital is 520,000,000 rubles. Provision has been made for three directors. The signature of any two of the directors is legally binding. The following have been assigned as directors: Pyotr Sergeyevich Nazarov, general director; Vassili Antonovich Markevich, deputy general director; Georgi Nikolayevich Agafonov, director, all living in Berlin. Not mentioned in the original registration is the following item: the registered shares have been divided into 52,000 registered shares, each in the present nominal amount of 10,000 rubles. The founders of the corporation, who own all shares, are, first, the Main Administration of Soviet Property Abroad of the Ministry for Foreign Trade of the USSR, Moscow; and, second, the Union of Vsesoyuzneye Obyedineniye Raznoimport, Moscow.

~~RESTRICTED~~

CONFIDENTIAL REFERENCE CENTER LIBRARY

~~RESTRICTED~~~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

10. The State Corporation for Dye Production KRASKA, subsidiary in Halle, main office in Moscow. The charter of incorporation was registered on or between 18 and 31 January 1947. The objective of the enterprise is production and sale of all kinds of dyeing and tanning materials and other chemical products, both on Russian soil and abroad. The basic capital is 120,000,000 rubles. Provision has been made for two directors. The signatures of both directors are necessary on any legally binding document. The following have been assigned as directors: Ivan Alexeyevich Laiko, general director; Pyotr Nikolayevich Revokatov, deputy director, both living in Berlin. Not mentioned in the original registration is the following item: the basic capital is divided into 12,000 registered shares, each in the present nominal amount of 10,000 rubles. The founders of the enterprise, who own all the shares, are, first, the Main Administration of Soviet Property Abroad of the Ministry for Foreign Trade of the USSR; and, second, the Union of Vsesoyuznoye Obyedineniye Rasnoimport, Moscow.
11. The Corporation of the Chemical Industry PLASTIK, subsidiary in Halle, main office in Moscow. The charter of incorporation was registered on or between 17 and 31 January 1947. The objective of the enterprise is the production and sale of plastic substances, celluloid and celluloid articles, calcium carbide, calcium cyanamide, acetylene lamp black, and other chemical products, both on Russian soil and abroad. The basic capital is 30,000,000 rubles. Provision has been made for two directors. The signatures of both directors are necessary on any legally binding document. The following have been assigned as directors: Nikolai Pavlovich Reshetov, general director; Konstantin Pavlovich Babakov, deputy director, both living in Berlin. Not mentioned in the original registration is the following item: the basic capital is divided into 3,000 registered shares, each in the present nominal amount of 10,000 rubles. The founders of the corporation, who own all the shares, are, first, the Main Administration of Soviet Property Abroad of the Ministry for Foreign Trade of the USSR, Moscow; and, second, the Union of Vsesoyuznoye Obyedineniye Rasnoimport, Moscow.
12. The State Corporation for Mineral Fertilizer MINERALIYE UDROBRENIYA, subsidiary in Halle, main office in Moscow. The charter of incorporation was registered on or between 25 and 31 January 1947. The objective of the enterprise is production and sale of various mineral fertilizer materials, synthetic liquid fuels, and other organic and inorganic chemical products, both on Russian soil and abroad. Basic capital is 400,000,000 rubles. Provision has been made for three directors. The signatures of any two directors are legally binding. The following have been assigned as directors: Nikolai Ivanovich Batmanov, general director; Ivan Andreyevich Makorov, deputy general director; Georgi Georgievich Memeshkin, director; all living in Berlin. Not mentioned in the original registration is the following item: the basic capital is divided into 40,000 registered shares, each in the present nominal amount of 10,000 rubles. The founders of the corporation, who own all the shares, are first, the Main Administration of Soviet Property Abroad of the Ministry for Foreign Trade of the USSR, Moscow; and second, the Union of Vsesoyuznoye Obyedineniye, Soyuzproexport, Moscow.
13. The documents which were transferred upon the founding of the corporations may be read in Russian and German translation at the business establishments.

REFERENCE CENTER LIBRARY

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~~~RESTRICTED~~